Stewards Record
— from 1797 to 1837 —

The rise of Methodism on Orrington Circuit appears to be as follows. - In the year 1793 the Rev. Jesse Lee came to Penobscot River and preached several times in different places.
And being requested either to stay and serve the people, or use means to furnish them with another of his own Denomination, sometime after the Rev. Joshua Hall was sent, who continued his labours several Months, and was instrumental of a number of awakenings.

The Rev. Philip Wagner succeeded him in serving the people three Months. And was followed by Rev. Enoch Mudge who established a Church in the town of Orrington according to the Methodist Discipline, and first administered the Lord's supper on 27th Nov. 1796.
